Olive is so young and naive that she does notice the troubles that are in her family. Despite the conflicts that arise between the family she makes it to the auditions in California.

Plot

The Hoover family -- a man (Greg Kinnear), his wife (Toni Collette), an uncle (Steve Carell), a brother (Paul Dano) and a grandfather (Alan Arkin) -- puts the fun back in dysfunctional by piling into a VW bus and heading to California to support a daughter (Abigail Breslin) in her bid to win the Little Miss Sunshine Contest. The sanity of everyone involved is stretched to the limit as the group's quirks cause epic problems as they travel along their interstate route.

A family on the verge of a breakdown.

The directors spent several months attending child beauty pageants as research for the film. So when they were finally ready to shoot, they asked actual contestants they had met to play Olive's rivals in the fictional "Little Miss Sunshine" competition. Those contestants included eight-year-old girls like Maliah Hudson, who had been a fixture of the pageant circuit since she was an infant.

Olive: Hi, Uncle Frank!

Frank: Oh, hey, Olive. Wow, you're getting big, almost like a real person.

Cindy: The girl who won had to forfeit her crown. I don't know why, something about diet pills. But anyway, now she has a place in the state contest.

Dwayne (writes down "Please don't kill yourself tonight.")

Frank: Not on your watch; I wouldn't do that to you.

(Dwayne writes down "Welcome to Hell.")

Frank: Thank you, Dwayne. Coming from you, that means a lot.

Goodnight.

Little Miss Sunshine is a black comedy aimed at adults. It exposes the hypocrisy in children's beauty pageants as well as the myth of winners versus losers. The main messages from this movie are that so called 'losers' can be winners too and that body image is irrelevant in the broad scheme of things.

'Everybody pretend to be normal'

8. REAL CHILD BEAUTY PAGEANT CONTESTANTS APPEARED IN THE MOVIE.

Olive: Grandpa, am I pretty?

Grandpa: Olive, you are the most beautiful girl in the whole world.

Olive: You're just saying that.

Grandpa: No! I'm madly in love with you and it's not because of your brains or your personality. It's because you're beautiful, inside and out.

Olive: Grandpa?

Grandpa: Yeah?

Olive: I don't wanna be a loser.

Grandpa: You're not a loser. Where'd you get the idea you're a loser?

Olive: Because... Daddy hates losers.

Grandpa: Whoa whoa whoa, back up a minute. D'you know what a loser is? A real loser is someone who's so afraid of not winning, they don't even try. Now you're trying, right?

Olive: Yeah?

Grandpa: Well then you're not a loser! We're gonna have fun tomorrow, right?

Olive: Yeah.

Grandpa: We can tell 'em all to go to hell.

(Toni Collette) "I'm so glad you're still here."

(Steve Carell) "Well, that makes one of us."
